

OUR MISSION.

To increase shareholder value and improve communication in closely held enterprises.

WHAT WE DO.

ReGENERATION Partners is founded on the personal commitment of the principals to help strengthen and sustain family enterprises.

WHY REGENERATION PARTNERS?

Our experienced professional advisors bring valuable insights to family enterprises and help resolve the challenges that inhibit or even consume the family and their business.

From long-range strategic planning to short-term issue resolution – from identifying the strengths and weaknesses to exploiting opportunities and sidestepping threats – ReGENERATION Partners stands ready to guide your family business to a sustained competitive advantage in the business world with defined leadership, stronger internal controls, appropriate governance, positive family relationships, and effective communication.

CONTACT REGENERATION PARTNERS WHEN:

- Your business is experiencing operating or performance challenges
- Family issues interfere with effective leadership
- You are ready to plan for a smooth transfer of leadership
- Your business lacks a comprehensive vision for the future and clearly defined action steps
- A recapitalization or sale is being considered
- You need confidential, objective, and experienced assistance with your personal effectiveness
- Governance issues erode business performance
- Family relationships and communications are severely strained
- Either the family or business is undergoing dramatic change
- Planning or executing an ownership or leadership change
- You need a team of experienced, passionate, and skilled professionals

"Family-owned businesses must be treated as wonderfully complex, integrated systems of family relationships fighting against the pressures of the marketplace. This fact makes them radically different from publicly-held companies."

James Olan Hutcheson
 President and Managing Director
 ReGENERATION Partners

